

Artistic Talent On Display

Deep in the heart of Granville Island is a funky restaurant/Gallery.. Kharma's Kitchen was the venue for an art exhibit that featured works by Jim Adams, Garrett Campbell-Wilson and Natoya Ellis.

Several art lovers, friends and family of the exhibitors attended a reception in honor of Black History Month and were warmly welcomed and treated to wonderful hors d'oeuvres and refreshments.

Attending the exhibit organized by Nantley Forde, were artists Jim Adams and Garrett Campbell-Wilson, both of whom addressed the audience.

Photo by Mark Okoth

Artist Garrett Campbell-Wilson chats with The Afro News' Sonja Brooke.

